

Hound Comics World Premiere A Success

Brimstone and his Borderhounds take Miami by storm in a major way

Miami, Florida, February 28th, 2011 – Last Saturday morning at 11:30am, Brimstone and his eclectic crew of Borderhounds tore into Wizard World's Miami Comic Con the only way they know how... with style! Hound Comics, in conjunction with Floating Pear Productions, revealed their highly anticipated Brimstone and The Borderhounds: The Animated Series title sequence to a full house of eagerly awaiting press, fans and curious convention goers. Following the world premiere, the creators entertained attendees with an informative Q&A session and an offering of exclusive Hound Comics wristbands compliments of Bandedez.

Make no mistake; the comic is certainly not playing second fiddle to the animated series – The Borderhounds booth at the convention was packed out with rabid fans looking to score advance copies of Brimstone and The Borderhounds to be signed by a rare appearance containing four of the five creators. “The entire weekend was perfect! The ONLY thing that was missing was our partner Thiago Castro – so although the event went above and beyond our previous expectations; the success was bittersweet without Thiago on site with the rest of us.” says Hound Comics CEO, William ‘Brimstone’ Kucmierowski.

Even gamers had something to enjoy with a first look at the Brimstone and The Borderhounds video game being viewed exclusively at the booth. “Our goal is to have each form of media play a specific role in the success of the brand as a whole!” says Sajad Shah, Hound Comics VP. “Wizard World Entertainment has been very good to Brimstone and the entire Hound Comics team” says Co-CEO, Marcello Carnevali. He adds, “We look forward to continuing to nurture the relationship we have.” “This being my first official convention on the other side of the table; I was humbled by all the amazing fans that showed their love and appreciation for what we’re doing here.” says Allen Chickering of Hound Comics. He continues, “I’m nobody special; I’m just a regular guy who happens to be a part of something extraordinary”

Hound Comics will be following up the Miami premiere with an Issue two Barnes & Noble release party taking place on March 8th in Manhattan. The semi-private New York City event will offer an exclusive premiere viewing of the animation and celebrity guest appearances from cast members. Privileged guests will be the first to hear the breaking news announcing the pop culture icon, who is the most recent addition to the voice-over cast. When Hound's Thiago Castro was asked about who the mystery person was, he declared, “All we can say for now is that he's from a galaxy far, far away! You'll have to wait until next week!” For press who would like to attend; please contact Amy Di Leo at HoundComics@gmail.com
